VILLAGE MANAGEMENT, MAINTENANCE AND FEEDBACK

The village manager is responsible for the operation of all services in the village as well as ensuring residents follow the code of conduct of the village for the comfort of others. Each resident is asked to observe and comply with this code of conduct at all times during their stay.

MAINTENANCE REQUESTS

- › Please report all maintenance requests to Reception. Regular inspections are carried out, including resident accommodation.
- › Maintenance request forms are provided to residents in Room, dining room and at Reception. Please ensure these forms are filled out clearly with as much detail as possible to ensure management is able to address these requests as quickly as possible.
- › Management aims to rectify maintenance issues within a 24hr period. Due to parts being required for some areas of maintenance, this can result in delays.
- › If you require any further assistance while your maintenance request is being rectified, please contact Reception who will be more than willing to accommodate you.

VILLAGE FEEDBACK

- › Resident feedback forms are available in accommodation rooms, dining room and at Reception.
- › We appreciate you taking the time to provide us feedback (both good and constructive). Each piece of feedback received by management will be taken into consideration and actioned where possible.
- › Please ensure your name and room number is on the feedback form, so that management is able to respond to your requests and comments directly, by placing a compliments slip in your room. If you are unsatisfied with the response from your feedback form, please do not hesitate to contact the Stayover Village Manager or Central Reservations directly for further discussion.

EMERGENCY CONTACT NUMBERS

The Village Manager is onsite 24hrs in case of an emergency.

Emergency contact numbers are located outside Reception. All emergencies must be reported to Reception or Village Manager (if after hours) immediately. If this is not possible, due to a medical concern, the emergency must be reported within 24hrs.

CODE OF CONDUCT

ARRIVALS

- › On arrival, all incoming residents are required to check in at reception after 2.00pm.

At this time, you will receive your room key; check-in acknowledgment; Welcome to Stayover Village information pack; village induction and will be requested to sign the village daily register.

DEPARTURES

- › Residents are required to sign out on departure and return their room key to Reception or dining room (if Reception is unattended). Failure to do this will result in a replacement key charge for the resident concerned through their employer. You will also be considered in-house and charged accordingly, until your departure is confirmed.
- › Residents are required to remove all belongings from their room on departure.
- › If any items are left in the room, Stayover by Ausco and village management accepts no responsibility for loss or damage of any items left in room.

TEMPORARY DEPARTURES (R&R)

The employer must make arrangements with the employee to check out of the village for the duration of such absences. The resident must:

- › vacate the room
- › return their room key
- › sign out on the village register

In the event of this not occurring through this period, charges will continue through the temporary departure.

CARE OF FACILITIES

- › Residents are responsible for keeping and maintaining all furniture, fittings and linen in good condition.
- › Residents occupying rooms are not permitted to remove any fittings or furniture.

VISITORS

- › All visitors to Stayover® by Ausco villages must report to Reception to sign the visitor register and receive an onsite induction and resident code of conduct.
- › This includes any contractors, contracted to perform works onsite by Ausco or the caterer.
- › Unauthorised persons are not permitted to stay in the village. Sharing a room with an unauthorised person may result in accommodation privileges being revoked.

VEHICLE ACCESS

- › Vehicles are to be parked in designated areas only. All drivers are required to strictly observe the speed limits in place onsite.
- › Residents of Stayover on Zeller Street are not permitted to park on Zeller Street or Price Street under any circumstances. All residents must use the designated Stayover car parks.
- › Vehicles that are unroadworthy or derelict are not permitted to remain onsite.
- › Stayover on Zeller St is private property and entry into the car park is at our discretion. Car parking is for Stayover residents and staff and their invited guests only.
- › No trucks or vehicles with trailers are permitted to park in the Stayover carpark. No vehicle exceeding six and a half metres in length, or has a gross vehicle weight that exceeds four thousand five hundred kilograms.
- › Each time that you bring your vehicle into the car park, you do so subject to these Conditions of Use.
- › When you park and leave your vehicle in the car park, you do so at your own risk and you remain responsible for your vehicle and any property in or on it.
- › You must park your vehicle within the limits as defined by lines painted on the surface of the parking area, and comply with all signs erected in the car park. You must comply with any directions or instructions we give you.
- › You must not park your vehicle:
 - (a) in the car park if you are not a Stayover resident or staff member or their invited guest; or
 - (b) if you do so as to obstruct or permit the obstruction of the free passage to, or the use of, this car park, and

We reserve the right to remove any unauthorised or obstructing vehicle. We will not be liable for any damage to your vehicle, persons or property by such removal. You will immediately pay to us any costs we incur in connection with such removal.

- Residents are only entitled to park their vehicle in the car park whilst in residency at Stayover on Zeller St. Residents must remove their vehicle from the car park upon checking out, whether temporarily checking out for R&R or associated leave or permanently checking out at the end of their stay.
- Except to the extent required by law, we will not be liable for: (a) the safe custody of any vehicle in this car park; or (b) the delivery of your vehicle to any person, whether that person has authority to take it or not; or (c) any theft loss or damage whatsoever to any vehicle or its accessories or contents; or (d) any damage to your property, injury to you or your death while you, your vehicle or your property person is in this car park or while you are entering or leaving this car park.
- You release and indemnify us from any claim against us or expense incurred by us arising from your use of the car park or from us removing your vehicle from it.
- You must ensure that your parked vehicle is securely locked and the ignition key removed.
- You must not litter the car park, or allow your vehicle to spill or leak oil in it.
- These Conditions of Use will only exclude us from liability to the extent that they are able to do so under any law which restricts or forbids that exclusion of liability, including the Trade Practices Act and similar State legislation.
- If any part of these Conditions of Use is illegal or unenforceable, that part is to be disregarded, and its removal will not affect the rest of the conditions.
- In these Conditions of Use, references to: (a) "we", "us" and "our" means Ausco Modular Pty Ltd ACN 010 654 994 t/as Stayover, its employees, agents and independent contractors; (b) "you" means the person using, or intending to use this car park; and (c) "your vehicle" includes a vehicle and/or trailer driven, or intended to be driven, by you into this car park.

ROOM KEYS (SAFETY & SECURITY)

- › Room keys are for the sole use of the resident issued the key.
- › Room keys are non transferable and any misuse of the key may result in accommodation privileges being revoked.
- › Lost or misplaced keys are to be reported to Reception immediately. If you require temporary access to your room, please contact Reception or the Village Manager (if after-hours).
- › Any doors found forced open and damaged can result in accommodation privileges being revoked. In the event of damages, repair costs will be charged directly to the resident through their employer.
- › Residents are required to keep their key on their person at all times. From time to time you may be asked to present your room key, this will be used as a means of identity and confirm your right to access village facilities.
- › Upon Departure and on completion of a Housekeeping check, any items found to be missing shall be charged to the resident's employer and paid to Stayover by Ausco.
- › Where a key has been lost by a resident and in accordance with our security policy, the door lock to the resident's rooms will be changed and this will incur a fee which will be charged to the resident's employer and paid to Stayover by Ausco. The fee for a Standard Room door lock is $55.00+GST, the fee for a Superior or Executive Room door lock is $150.00+GST due to an authorised electrician being required to complete the changeover of the power isolation barrel in these rooms.
- › Where a key has been broken by a resident and provided to reception staff, a replacement key charge of $20.00+GST will be charged to the resident's employer and paid to Stayover by Ausco. Should the key be broken in the lock and thus requiring the lock to be changed, the door lock change fees will apply.

SMOKING AND DRUGS

- › Smoking in rooms or directly outside of rooms and all public enclosed spaces is prohibited at all times.
- › Smoking is only permitted in designated outside smoking areas, DOSAs
- › Smoking is not permitted outside rooms and in walkways.
- › Cigarette butts must be disposed of in the ashtrays provided in the designated outside smoking areas.
- › Possession or use of illegal drugs is strictly prohibited.
- › Smoking in rooms is a serious fire safety hazard and will result in revoke accommodation.

ROOM SERVICING

- › Rooms are serviced weekly. Bed linen and towels will be serviced at this time. Please contact Reception if you have any questions.
- › Each resident is responsible for keeping their allocated room clean, hygienic and tidy at all times. Cleaning equipment is available upon request at Reception for this purpose.
- › Authorised personell will regularly inspect rooms to ensure personal hygiene is being maintained. Village service personell will not attend to any dirty or unhygienic rooms. Any persons found not to be keeping their room in a manner considered hygienic will be requested by management to rectify this within 24hrs. If this does not occur, the resident's employer will be notified and may lead to accommodation privileges being revoked.
- › Cooking is not permitted in accommodation rooms.

COMPUTER & INTERNET

The Stayover Wi-Fi Service Acceptable Use Policy prohibits the following:

- Using the Service to transmit any material that, intentionally or unintentionally, violates any applicable local, state, national or international law, or any rule or regulations promulgated thereunder.
- Using the Service to harm, or attempt to harm other persons, businesses or other entities.
- Using the Service to transmit any material that threatens or encourages bodily harm or destruction of property or harasses another.
- Using the Service to make fraudulent offers to sell or buy products, items, or services or to advance any type of financial scam.
- Adding, removing, or modifying identifying network header information in an effort to deceive or mislead is prohibited. Attempting to impersonate any person by using forged headers or other identifying information is prohibited.
- Using the Service to transmit or facilitate any unsolicited commercial email or unsolicited bulk email.
- Using the Service to access, or to attempt to access, the accounts of others, or to penetrate, or attempt to penetrate, security measures of the Stayover Wi-Fi Service or another entity's computer software or hardware, electronic communications system or telecommunications system, whether or not the intrusion results in the access, corruption or loss of data.
- Using the Service to transmit any material that infringes any copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, or other proprietary rights of any third party, including, but not limited to, the unauthorized copying of copyrighted material, the digitization and distribution of photographs from magazines, books or other copyrighted sources, and the unauthorized transmittal of copyrighted software.
- Using the Service to collect, or attempt to collect, personal information about third parties without their knowledge or consent.
- Reselling the Service.
- Using the Service for any activity which adversely affects the ability of other people or systems to use the Stayover Wi-Fi Service or the Internet. This includes "denial of service" (DoS) attacks against another network host or individual user. Interference with or disruption of other network users, network services or network equipment is prohibited. It is your responsibility to ensure that your network is configured in a secure manner.
- Using your personal account for high volume (greater than 5Gb per month) or commercial use is prohibited. The Service is intended for periodic, active use of email, newsgroups, file transfers, Internet chat, messaging, and browsing of the Internet. You may stay connected so long as you are actively using the connection for the above purposes. You may not use the Service on a standby or inactive basis in order to maintain a connection. Accordingly, the Stayover maintains the right to terminate your connection following any extended period of inactivity.

HEALTH AND WELLBEING

We strive to provide you with excellent service and quality facilities; promoting a healthy lifestyle for all our residents whilst working and living away from home.

ENVIRONMENT

The village has a number of basic rules for protecting the environment and in general terms, residents are requested to respect the local flora, fauna and landscape.

FIRST AID FACILITIES

First aid facility is located in Reception. Please contact Reception for access.

GYM

Access to the gym is 24 hours.

There are risks assumed by individuals who use Stayover Gyms.

In order to use the gym facility you must ensure you follow the guidelines below:

- › Consult your doctor or a gym instructor before starting an exercise program.
- › Do not begin any exercise program without proper instruction.
- › If you are doing weight training, including bench presses, it is recommended that you have a spotter present and work out with a training partner.
- › Perform your exercises at a smooth moderate pace, do not jerk or yank on weights or any pieces of equipment.
- › Inspect equipment prior to use. Check cables for wear and tear; pop pins are placed in and secure; nuts, bolts and screws are all in place and secure.
- › Never use any pieces of equipment if any parts are missing or damaged. Ensure a maintenance request is filled out and submitted for repair, to allow village management to tag out the piece of equipment.
- › Always make sure all 'Snap Links' are closed before using any pullies or cables.
- › Keep clear of cables and moving equipment when in use.
- › Always use a clean towel and ensure dirty towels are placed in basket after use.
- › Take regular breaks and drink additional water to allow for moisture loss and muscle conditioning.
- › Always replace weights after use.
- › If you feel light headed or dizzy, stop exercising immediately and ask for assistance. We recommend you see a doctor before continuing any further training.

ONLY RESIDENTS & OVERNIGHT GUEST ARE PERMITTED TO USE THE GYM FACILITY AFTER COMPLETING THE ONSITE INDUCTION ON TRAINING EQUIPMENT.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL

WARNING: By entering and using the beach volleyball court, you enter into a contract with Stayover upon these terms and conditions. If you do not accept these terms and conditions, you must not enter or use the beach volleyball court.

ACCEPTANCE OF RISK AND RELEASE

1. You enter and use the beach volleyball court facilities provided by Stayover at your own risk and acknowledge that entry on to and use of the beach volleyball court may involve risk of injury, whether caused by you or another party.
2. By accepting these terms and conditions, to the fullest extent permitted by law Stayover excludes its liability to you and you agree:
 - a. Stayover is released and will not be liable for any loss, injury, damage, or for any death, personal injury or illness you suffer from entering or using the beach volleyball court; and
 - b. the liability of Stayover is limited if you are killed or injured entering or using the beach volleyball court, with the result that compensation may not be payable if you or a third party suffers death or personal injury.
3. This release does not apply if your death or injury results from gross negligence on the part of Stayover.

RESTRICTIONS ON ACCESS AND USE

4. Stayover may refuse to provide you access or use of the beach volleyball court, including confiscation of all associated equipment, if:
 - a. you do not agree to exclude, restrict or modify your rights by accepting these terms and conditions;
 - b. your conduct is improper, harmful or potentially harmful to property or other people; or
 - c. you fail to follow any direction given by a Stayover employee or contractor or violate any of the Village Rules.
5. No person other than the General Manager of Stayover has authority to vary, waive or excuse compliance with any of these terms and conditions.
6. In these terms and conditions, 'Stayover' means Ausco Modular Pty Ltd t/as Stayover, ABN 14 010 654 994 and its assigns and includes its officers, employees and contractors.

ACCEPTANCE OF RISK

Each resident expressly accepts that the Resident's residency and use of the Facilities is at their own risk and no responsibility or liability for any, loss, damaged or injury suffered by a Resident, whether to the Resident's person or property as a result of any breakage, leakage, theft or other event on Site, shall be accepted by Stayover® by Ausco.

No responsibility shall be accepted by Stayover® by Ausco, its employees, subcontractors or agents for loss of or damage to personal belongings and it is strongly suggested that valuables and money should not be left in rooms. Always lock your room.
